| Handwriting | The teaching of handwriting is linked to statutory spelling words. Pupils in KS2 are given the opportunity to earn pen licenses for continuous, cursive handwriting. By the end of Key Stage 2, pupils are expected to maintain legibility in joined handwriting when writing at speed (Teacher Assessment Framework). | | |
| Oracy | On a daily basis, pupils should communicate with peers and adults clearly, respectfully and appropriately in a range of situations, using Standard English and coherent sentences. Pupils should be able to ask and answer questions, give well-structured descriptions and explanations, justify their ideas, negotiate, evaluate and build on the ideas of others, and develop their vocabulary (including subject specific). They should develop their understanding through speculating, hypothesising and exploring ideas. They should use these spoken language skills to organise their ideas for writing and recording. | | |
